What is your main reason for choosing that response?

The Equality Act 2010 and the Accessible Information Standard (ISA 1605).
Are your staff Deaf Aware? Can you great deaf patients in their own language? Are you aware of your responsibilities towards the D/deaf under the Equality Act 2010 and the new Accessible Information Standard (ISA 1605)?
If the answer to any of the above is NO, then you need to arrange some workplace training for your staff.
Dot Sign is a 'not-for-profit' organisation who have been providing education and training for many years. Dot Sign exist to promote D/deaf awareness, British Sign Language and equal access to opportunities for the D/deaf. This includes training the hearing on how to provide equal access to information and services.
We offer daytime courses 'in-situ' for your staff and/or GP's based on your individual requirements. These can be a little at 2 hour workshops through to weekly sessions with examinations.
